The Mayor laid before the Council report of Councilman Lockridge as follows:

Austin, Texas, Nov 16th 1911.

To the Hon City Council,

City of Austin, Texas.

Gentlemen:

I beg to submit my final report as follows:

The books of the City Assessor and Collector, City Clerk, Clerk of the Corporation Court, City Engineer and Plumbing Inspector have been examined from April 20th, 1911, to October 31st, 1911,

My predecessor reported the examination of these accounts to April 20th 1911.

The books of the departments mentioned are in good condition.

A superficial audit of the books in the Water, Light and Power office from January 1st 1911, to October 31st 1911, was made and they were found to be apparently correct.

The stock ledgers and stocks at the Water, Light & Power store room and elsewhere, were not examined for the reason that the end of the fiscal year is near and I desire to make the following recommendations with reference thereto effective at December 31st 1911.

- (1) That at the close of the fiscal year the stock of material on hand in the store-room and elsewhere be inventoried.
- (2) That the results as shown by the inventory be compared with the stock ledgers and discrepancies, if any, noted.
- (3) That the balance or value of the stock as shown by the stock ledgers be compared with the balance or value of stock as shown on the stock account in the controlling ledger kept in the Water, Light and Power office, and the discrepancy, if any, noted.

(4) That a full and complete report of all discrepancies, if any, developed by the examination recommended to be made be reported to the Council.

(5) That in taking the inventory some competent person be appointed to represent the City and to assist the store-keeper in complying with the foregoing recommendations.

I would further recommend that a suitable check be placed on the cash receipts at the City Hospital from pay patients without reference to who, from time to time, may be in charge of that particular branch of the service.

Cash in the City treasury at the close of business, November 15th 1911, as follows:

Earnings fund	$ 102,453.20
General fund	5,768.60
Street Improvement fund	11,573.52
Interest and Sinking fund	34,925.10
City Park fund	1,883.41
City Cemetery fund	1,233.75
Fred Sterzing Collector	2,094.16
Permanent Paving fund	3,305.46
Total	$ 163,341.20

Sanitary.

After having transferred to the Paving fund $ 500.00 for Commissioner Powell's use, and $ 250.00 to the City Hospital fund for Commissioner Hart's use, out of the Sanitary Dept appropriations, there will be left in these appropriations at the end of the year, some $ 1,000.00 or $ 1,200.00 if the same economy is used in the future as has been in the past.

I recommend that this unused proportion be expended as a first payment on the erection of a William H McGuire Sanitary Furnace. One of these furnaces will be adequate for the present to take care of all dead animals of the City, and will relieve the dead animal burying ground, which has been such a source of annoyance to the good people in the Southeastern part of the City. This furnace can be built, with a guarantee that it will do the work, for $ 2,500.00.

I have used the strictest economy to save funds for this furnace and am glad to say that after allowing for other departments $ 750.00 of my allowance, there will still be $ 1,000.00 to apply on it.

The Dam.

I recommend that a separate and itemized account be kept of all expenses incurred in the rebuilding of the dam, that the people may know what the dam cost.

Expenses to date have been $ 1,033.18, as follows:

Prof T U Taylor, Expert services and advice in dam matter	$ 50.00
Prof A C Scott, Expert service and advice in dam matter	.50.00
Hack hire for Prof Taylor, account of sickness	2.50
Statesman Pub Co, advertising dam ordinance	38.60
Tribune Pub Co, advertising dam ordinance	37.65
Gregory Battsand Brooks, Legal service Assisting City Attorney Rector on dam contract	250.00
Prof A C Scott, Expert services in helping to draw up specifications in dam contract	300.00
P L Richardson et al, Cost of holding dam election	214.50
Tribune Pub Co, Advertising dam ordinance and proclamation	98.88
Total	$ 1,033.18

I do not consider that my report would be complete without a word of commendation for Tax Assessor and Collector Fred Sterzing and his two able assistants, Henry Ziller and C C Graves. Rarely has any City secured more able men to watch over its collections and the fact that the Department of Receipts, Disbursements and Accounts has collected 96 14 /100 per cent of the taxes assessed for the present year, that not a single criticism has arisen as to their plan of operation, and that their faithful work has been commented upon favorably by all, will long be a monument to them and will serve as an illustrious example to those who may follow in their footsteps in years to come.

Assistant City Attorney, J A Richardson also deserves thanks, for he has faithfully aided the Department in a number of ways, especially in regard to the tax collections. At all times he has shown willingness and competency.

Milton Morris, our auditor and Book-keeper, has no superiors and few equals. His watchful eye, his sound knowledge of accounting and general business, his expert knowledge as an auditor, and his willingness and general ability make him invaluable to the City of Austin. His advice has been most helpful and to him I wish to express my deep appreciation.

We have been fortunate, too, in retaining as City Clerk, Jno O Johnson, .

Rarely has any City found one more faithful, more conscientious, and more skilled in his work. At all times he has displayed ability and has ever been on hand to do his duty. One of the most pleasant duties I have performed was to vote for his retention.

Sanitary Inspector R W Patterson, has gathered around him a faithful corps of men, all hard workers, working for the best interest of the City, and willing to do anything to improve the sanitary conditions. They have worked in good weather and bad without a murmur and their faithfulness, if they had no other recommendation, should be commended. They have made strenuous efforts to please both the Commission and the people and should be rewarded for their good work.

City Councilman E C Bartholomew, who as a most successful manager of the City's Water and light property, has gathered around him an able corps of Assistants to look after the business end of his affairs, and has indeed been fortunate.

Under Councilman F W Powell, a worthy campaign has been waged for better streets and improved sidewalks, two essentials for the proper civic development. The City has been fortunate in securing some able men for its Police Force and the department of public charities under the supervision of Mrs Nellie W Holden, is proving a most successful branch of our government.

Mrs Holden is indeed a capable head and of her it may be said that she is the right person in the right place. Howard Warner, too, as stenographer and Clerk for the Commission deserves the thanks of all for his willingness and ability.

The City Employees are a faithful set of men of whom any City should be proud. They have assisted me in every way and I leave the Commission with the belief and hope that I may number them among my friends and that they will not hesitate to call upon me, if I can be of service to them.

In retiring from the City Commission, I wish to express to those who have honored me by election and to those who have assisted me during my term of office, my sincerest appreciation and thanks. If, in the future, I can in any way serve them, they should not hesitate to call upon me.

For twenty years I have had the best interest of our City at heart and in the future will continue to wish for its advancement, be willing to make sacrifices that may benefit if necessary.

I regret that my views as a business man were such that I felt that I could no longer conscientiously serve upon the Commission and approve accounts under the present dam contract. Yet, I realize that business men often differ and I hope that the burdens I have anticipated under the present dam contract may not fall upon the shoulders of our Citizens.

Austin adopted the Commission form of government for the purpose of securing a business-like administration. During my brief public service I have attempted to give her people that which they demanded in the way of economy and strict business ethics.

When I found that I was entirely out of sympathy with a proposition involving the expenditure of vast sums of the City's money and that of her citizens, there was but one course left for me, to resign as any conscientious public servant should do when he finds that his people are not being served best. This is said in no reflection upon my colleagues, for as I said before, business men often differ. We all want the dam, but we merely disagreed as to the plan to be pursued in getting it.

In conclusion I again wish to thank all who have assisted me and to express my willingness to aid any proposition that appears to me to be for the best interest of the City for whose welfare and people I have the kindest of feelings.

Respectfully,

I P Lockridge.

Supt Receipts, Disbursements and Accounts.
